Now that you know about The Value of Helping: The Tale of Harriet Tubman —

What do you think?

-  What did you like most about the story?
  -  How did Harriet Tubman help?
  -  What do you think would have happened if Harriet Tubman did not help people?
  -  How do you feel when you help out?
  -  How could you use The Value of Helping — in big and small ways — in your own life?
